1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex), has been established under Regulation (EU) 2016/1624 of 14 September 2016 (the 'Regulation'). The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of about 440 to meet its expanded tasks.

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies as for example EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis on all aspects of border management, including assessment of the EU MS' border control authorities to face threats challenges at the external borders;
- Assisting member states in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border guards to share best practices and expertise at all EU borders;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border authorities;

- Cooperation with EU and international organisations, in the area of border management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return matters, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

2. THE OPERATIONS DIVISION AND RISK ANALYSIS UNIT

The mission of the Operations Division (OPD) of the European Border and Coast Guard Agency is to obtain and deliver a situational picture of the external borders of the EU, to implement the Eurosur business concept, to contribute to situational awareness by delivering analytical products and services, and based on these to plan and implement intelligence-driven operational activities on border control and combat cross-border crime, furthermore activities in the field of return support as well as to coordinate operational cooperation between involved stakeholders on EU level as well as in the EU Member States and Schengen associated Countries.

The task of the Risk Analysis Unit is to provide the foundation for Frontex operational action, as well as to deliver analytical knowledge on the current external borders security situation to EU Member States, Schengen Associated Countries, the Council and the Commission.

The Unit is divided into three Sectors:

- The Sector Strategic Analysis deals with regular information exchange and knowledge sharing on irregular migration, cross-border crime and border management with Member States, Third Countries and other partners, delivering periodical and tailored analytical products in order to support related strategic level decision-making.
- The Sector Operational Analysis deals with intelligence collection and provides support to Frontex coordinated joint operations and pilot projects through the provision of operational analysis based products, including the processing of personal data in accordance with Articles 45-47 of the Regulation.
- The Sector Analytics supports the analytical sectors in the ad-hoc and bespoke exploration of data and intelligence and in the provision and development of geospatial services. The ultimate objective of the team is to improve the timeliness and quality of the knowledge managed by the Risk Analysis Unit.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Unit (and under the supervision of the respective Head of Sector), the main duties of the Strategic Analyst are:

- Risk analysis related to border management and vulnerability assessment<sup>1</sup>;
- Implementing different data collection schemes for the purpose of conducting regular vulnerability assessments; monitoring, analysing information and reporting on Member States' technical equipment, systems, capabilities, resources, infrastructure, adequately skilled and trained staff necessary for border control as well as contingency plans on border management according to the best practices in the field;
- Support of activities related to the Vulnerability Assessment Network including organisation of meetings and workshops related to joint analytical activities.

<sup>1</sup> The European Border and Coast Guard Regulation requires Frontex to apply a common vulnerability assessment methodology to annually assess and monitor - as a preventive measure on the basis of a risk analysis - the capacity and readiness of the EU member states to face upcoming challenges, including:

- present and future threats and pressures at the external borders of the Union,
- the immediate consequences of disproportionate migratory pressures at the external borders, and
- EU member states' contribution to Frontex's rapid-reaction pool.

The vulnerability assessment is expected to provide a continuously-running instrument to monitor and identify possible vulnerabilities in the whole national border management system of the EU member states to complement the current Schengen evaluation mechanism, where every five years each EU member state is evaluated in terms of its compliance with the Schengen Borders Code.

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate is updated annually before the end of each year, with a retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities was concluded in March 2017 and its entry into force depends on the finalisation of the ratification procedure in the Polish Parliament. The estimated date of entry into force of this agreement is currently September 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities will provide the following main benefits to the Frontex staff of non-Polish nationality:

- (a) reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) limited 12 months' period of reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) reimbursement of VAT on the purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff pays an EU tax at sources and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of solidarity levy is 6 %.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service. On top of that, staff is entitled to a number days of leave to their basic entitlement depending on the grade, age and distance from the place of origin. In addition, there are on average 18 Frontex Public Holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled for a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected applicants to sensitive posts to undergo a security screening procedure and obtain a positive national opinion or respective personal security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post. For this post, the required level of clearance is CONFIDENTIEL UE / EU CONFIDENTIAL. Applicants who currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. They shall provide Frontex with a security clearance certificate specifying the issuing authority, level and date of expiry. In case the validity of the security clearance expires within six months, a renewal procedure shall be initiated expeditiously. In case selected applicants do not currently hold a valid and positive security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the applicants' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required security clearance certificate or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.
