Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and its main tasks are the following:

- Coordinate operational cooperation between Member States in the field of management of external borders;
- Assist Member States in the training of national border guards, including the establishment of common training standards;
- Carry out risk analyses;
- Follow up the development of research relevant for the control and surveillance of external borders;
- Assist Member States in circumstances requiring increased technical and operational assistance at external borders;
- Provide Member States with the necessary support in organizing joint return operations.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

¹ Date of publication 30 May 2016.

² Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004 of 26 October 2004 as last amended

2. THE OPERATIONS DIVISION AND THE RISK ANALYSIS UNIT

The mission of the Operations Division (OPD) of Frontex is to provide the situational picture at the external borders and to generate intelligence products, which provide the basis for Frontex operational activities and for coordinating operative cooperation at the external borders of the EU.

The task of the Risk Analysis Unit is to provide the foundation for Frontex operational action, as well as to deliver analytical knowledge on the current external borders security situation to EU Member States, Schengen Associated Countries, the Council of the EU and the European Commission.

The Unit is divided into three Sectors:

The Sector “Strategic Analysis” deals with regular information exchange on illegal migration with Member States and other partners and delivers periodical and tailored analytical products in order to support strategic level decision-making regarding management of EU external borders.

The Sector “Operational Analysis” deals with intelligence collection and provides support to Frontex coordinated joint operations and pilot projects through the provision of operational analysis based products, lately also including the processing of personal data in accordance with art.11c of the Frontex Regulation.

The Sector “Analytics” supports the analytical sectors in the ad-hoc and bespoke exploration of data and intelligence and in the provision and development of geospatial services. The ultimate objective of the sector is to improve the timeliness and quality of the knowledge managed by the Risk Analysis Unit.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Unit (and under the supervision of the Head of the Sector Operational Analysis) the main tasks and responsibilities of the Operational Analyst will include:

- Providing analytical support in the planning, operational phase, and final evaluations of joint operations and pilot projects;
- Delivering tailored, high quality analysis on the nature and scope of illegal migration and associated cross-border criminal activities;
- Collecting and processing the necessary data according to the best practices in the field;
- Preparing risk assessments, reports, letters, briefing notes and responses to enquiries;
- Supporting the organization of meetings, workshops, seminars and network cooperation in the field of unit/sector activities;
- Supporting and implementing the working cooperation with other Frontex units/sectors promoting the best practices and knowledge-sharing;
- Maintaining the relevant analytical files on the database and guaranteeing the archiving of files;
- Developing and implementing Sector activities in particular by contributing to the implementation of the tasks assigned in the Programme of Work.
