Disclaimer:

In the interest of equal treatment of applicants, the Frontex cannot issue a prior opinion on the eligibility of an applicant, an action or specific activities.

Question 1

Regarding the point 6.1 under Eligible applicants it is stated, that the applicant must have legal personality under the applicable national law. In our case, police schools providing basic training for border guards and police officers do not have legal personality. But the rest of the criteria applies to our institution, which is an institution of the Ministry of Interior. Is it possible to apply for the project under the circumstances stated above? Our institution has several accredited courses.

Only institutions having legal personality are eligible. In the case of schools not having a legal personality, the application may be submitted by the body representing the school in accordance with the national law in force (usually it is the body that has established and governs the school, e.g. Ministry, self-government).

Question 2

If our institution is not eligible to apply, is it possible to apply jointly with another institution, which does have legal personality, but does not train basic level border guards?

No. Under this Call, the application must be submitted by one applicant only and this applicant has to fulfil all eligibility criteria. Alternatively, the eligible institution may submit an application that would include staff of the interested police school for basic training as team members.

Question 3

As far as the project team is concerned, should the international expert be contacted by our institution, or will one be appointed to the project?

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure the international expert and include his/her CV in the application.

Question 4

What is the degree of financial contribution mentioned in 8.1 in the Call for proposals that our institution must contribute to the project?

The applicant should cover 5% of the eligible costs of the project.
