Access to the Asylum Procedure

1. Anyone can be a refugee
2. Everyone is entitled to protection against refoulement
3. Vulnerable persons must be identified and adequately supported
4. Best interests of the child take precedence in all actions concerning children
5. Anyone who may wish to apply for international protection must be informed about their right to do so
6. Everyone has the right to apply for international protection
7. Any sign or expression of fear can be understood as a request for international protection
8. Applicants for international protection must not be penalised due to their illegal entry or presence
9. Each application must be registered or referred for registration to the responsible authority
10. The principle of non-refoulement must be ensured, even when a person does not apply for asylum

Emergency healthcare and basic needs should always be addressed first
Every human being shall be valued and respected